

Creation Anthem

Sally Bentley/Miriam Jenison

Amaj7 D/A
Sitting on a hillside, gazing at the view.
E/A D/A
Looking at the beauty but all I see is you
Amaj7 D/A
Listening to the river, the eagle's call is clear.
E/A F G Am
The wind up in the treetops, but Your voice is all I hear

 F G Am F G Am
The earth declares Your beauty. Your glory shines ablaze.
 Dm Dm/C E Esus E
The heart of man cannot deny the wonder of all You've made.
 F G Am F G Am
The river sings of your power. The mountains display your strength.
 Dm Dm/C Esus/B E
The clouds show me Your gentle love; the sky its breadth and length.

 Amaj7 D/A
And then my eyes look down and see the smallest little flower
 E/A D/A
Its delicate design still moist from last night's gentle shower
Amaj7 D/A
There I see Your tenderness, Your kind and loving care
 E/A F G Am
The pleasure of Your beauty. Is that why You placed it there?

 Amaj7 D/A
O Lord, how many are your works? In wisdom You've made it all.
 E/A D/A
The earth is full of Your possessions; animals great and small.
 Amaj7 D/A
O Lord, be glad with all You've made. May your glory always endure.
 E/A F G Am
I will sing to You as long as I live for Your ways are perfectly pure!
