I Lay A Little Snare

A Parody of "I Say a Little Prayer" originally recorded by Dionne Warwick (Proverbs 6:25-26)

The moment I break up
I think of who I can take up
I lay a little snare for you
Your better beware now
It's only for me I care now
I lay a little snare for you

Forever, forever, you'll give me your heart
and I will take you
Forever, forever, I'll tear it apart
Oh, how I'll fake you
Together, together, you're down on one knee
To live without you
Would not be a heartbreak for me

Don't need all the fuss, dear
It's just too much to discuss, dear
I lay a little snare for you
My ways aren't a crime
Though some think I am a real slime
I lay a little snare for you

Forever, forever, you'll give me your heart
and I will take you
Forever, forever, I'll tear it apart
Oh, how I'll fake you
Together, together, you're down on one knee
To live without you
Would not be a heartbreak for me

My darling relieve me,
For me there is no one
But me

Please love me foo'

This is my lair

(Come make us a pair)
(You better beware)
(You're just a spare)
(As if I care)
