

You Don't Mess Around With Sin

*A parody of "You Don't Mess Around With Jim" recorded by Jim Croce
(Matthew 5:29-30)*

As feared as Big Jimmy Walker and Willy McCoy are in the original, sin is much more dangerous. This parody follows the original with the first verse about the title character and the following verses about the demise of the title character. As deadly as sin is, it can be resisted in the power of the Holy Spirit and will be defeated at the return of Jesus Christ. But for now, you don't mess around with sin.
