

I'm Fishing

*A parody of "I'm Wishing" from the Walt Disney Movie "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs"
(1 Corinthians 7:27)*

The parody "I'm Fishing" is a play on the attitude of the song "I'm Wishing" that has Snow White wishing for her Prince Charming. So singles today can fall into the trap of believing that their life is somehow devoid or on hold until "Mr. Right" or "Miss Right" comes along.

This view of marriage imagines a relationship that is surreal, distorted from reality. Moreover, in seeking, or fishing, for this person to meet this distortion causes one to overlook the blessings of God for them at the moment. No one's fulfillment comes through marriage; rather our fulfillment comes through the Lord, whether married or single.

Those who succumb to the distraction of the discontented pursuit of a mate will miss the blessing that God has for their present life. Suffice it to say that we are best served by seeking to become the right person, through holiness, rather than seeking the right person through our efforts. In this, the Lord is able to guide us to a person with these same values, which will be a blessing that no fictitious romance can touch.
