

Remember me, O my God, for good - 1 (Review Nehemiah)

Nehemiah has taken the city of Jerusalem and rebuilt it's walls. More importantly he has led the people of God to righteous living! Due to this godly man and other men and woman of God, Jerusalem now had walls and a holiness that was pleasing to the Lord.

What characteristics do you see in this man of God that would be good to have in our lives? Give examples of these five area's from the book of Nehemiah.

- 1. He prayed continually, planned, used wisdom and was persistent in what he knew God wanted him to do.
- 2. He confessed sin (his own and those of his people).
- 3. He knew the commands of God and sought to follow them wholeheartedly.
- 4. He was a spiritual leader who was used by God to change people's lives.
- 5. He wanted to please God by being holy/set apart.
